- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

Pursuant to the parties civil agreement, the defendant's restitution payments shall be paid over the duration of 120 months (10 years). The probation officer shall make a determination as to the reasonable payment based on the defendant's ability to pay monthly payments 1 through 60. During this five year term, monthly payments shall not exceed $200 per month. On or about May 1 of each year, during the term of the agreement, the defendant shall submit a current financial statement and copies of income tax returns to the United States Attorney's Office in Sioux City, Iowa. At the time payment 60 is made, or in the event the defendant's income substantially changes, the defendant shall promptly submit a current financial statement to the United States Attorney's Office, at which time based upon the financial information provided, the probation officer shall then make a determination as to the reasonable amount the defendant shall pay for months 60 through 120. During this second five year term, monthly payments shall not exceed 10% of the defendant's adjusted gross income as reflected on the defendant's Form 1040 federal income tax return, in each year. Upon termination of the promissory note, any outstanding obligation on the restitution shall be forgiven against the defendant.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
